The dialogue promoted in Laudato Si' helps us to open our hearts by listening together, thinking together, and talking together. Every voice is important. Every voice, even the small voice, must be heard. That is the best way to be aware of the promptings of the Holy Spirit, who is always the motivating force behind such change. But, taking is not enough. Pope Francis challenges us to move from words to action. Part of this publication, helps us to take the courageous steps that will assure change- for the common good. It outlines principles that might guide our decision-making. We learn that we must move forward together, and that we must make choices that benefit not only "me", but "us all".

GETTING TO KNOW ST. FRANCIS: St. Francis desired very sincerely to find solitary places where he could more conveniently devote himself to divine contemplation. When he heard Lord Orlando's offer of such a place, he first gave thanks to God who provides for his sheep through the medium of his faithful followers, then thanking Lord Orlando he replied this, "My Lord, when you have returned to your estates I shall send to you two of my companions, and you shall show them this mountain, and if it seems suitable I shall most gladly accept your generous offer." The said Lord lived in his own castle near Mount Alverna.
