

Dear Diocesan Members,

Pastoral Region

For the pastoral year 2020-2021, we continue, as Missionary-Disciples, to work to be an outgoing Church. However, our action and our pastoral life will be oriented and established on the Beatitudes that Jesus proposes to us as a path of conversion and holiness. Our theme "To spread happiness, I have words of consolation" refers to the beatitude of tears: "Blessed are the afflicted, for they shall be comforted" (Matthew 5:5).

The COVID-19 pandemic has cast us hard into the drama of suffering and evil. We cannot mask the reality of tears and escape the painful situations of human tragedy or loss of loved ones. If we have to cry, we have to dry the tears even more. This is why the diocese and several parishes or movements have set up networks of mutual aid and listening (by telephone, email or Facebook) with so many elderly people living in isolation, anguish or fear, with people who have lost their jobs or businesses, with couples or families experiencing tensions caused by isolation or proximity. The broadcasting of Masses or liturgies of the Word on the Internet has brought beneficial spiritual support to thousands of people. Since the reopening of our churches, we are working more than ever to heal broken hearts and to console so many mourners, which is especially accomplished by the large number of funerals, burials or special celebrations for the deceased.

Like many homes and families, our diocese and parishes have been hard hit financially by the pandemic. Faced with major losses of income and the additional expenses required by the health measures, the diocese has drawn on its mutual aid fund to help parishes in difficulty. In order to continue this support and pastoral services such as the formation of young people to Christian life, vocation ministry, support for families, assistance to missions, solidarity with the needy in our society, we are once again launching a fundraising campaign that takes on a special significance in this time of pandemic. We are counting very much on your financial contribution and an extra effort of generosity on your part.

Together, let us create happiness and let us be guided and enlightened by the Consoling Spirit!

With my gratitude and blessing,

† Noël Simard
