REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

The liturgical calendar gives us a unique opportunity to contemplate the role of the Holy Spirit. The month of June brings together 3 major feasts which are filled with Scriptural references to the Spirit. We are reminded that the Holy Spirit instructs and guides us. The Spirit does this by leading us to all truth as Christ says to the disciples on Trinity Sunday. The Spirit also empowers and inspires.

We see the apostles break free of the fear that kept them locked up in the upper room, empowered to proclaim the resurrection and the coming of God's reign.
