Lord sincerely, lovingly, confidently and

REFLECTION

They say parents are only as happy as their unhappiest child. I don't know how true that is, but I do know that I must draw on my faith in God when my children are unhappy. I cannot protect my children from going through hard times. I cannot take away their depression or uncertainty or anger or hurt. I cannot save them when they encounter rough waters even though I desperately yearn to and would do anything to spare them such pain.

But by faith, I know God is with them always. By faith, I know God will provide. By faith, I pray God will open their eyes to see God's dream for them. By faith, I can rejoice and bless God for all of God's wonderful reversals! And by faith, I pray that my children, too, will know and rely on this faith for themselves and their children.
