REFLECTION

Psalm 119:64. The earth, O Lord, is full of your love; instruct me in your statutes.

In the modern age of screens and a culture of declining social engagement, I find it increasingly difficult to appreciate the grandeur and steadfast love of God. I am too busy checking my email or the 24-hour news cycle to pay attention to the action of God right next to me: the kind lady checking out my groceries, the smell of wisteria wafting down from the trees, the child trying to tell me a story. And yet, to slow down and notice this ever-presence of God in all things and people is the beginning of discipleship. Once we've noticed, we can then say, "Instruct me in your statutes."

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Even if we speak with a low voice, even if we whisper without opening our lips, even if we call to Him only from the depths of our heart, our unspoken word always reaches God and God always hears.

-St Clement of Alexandria
