REFLECTION

An emailed invite comes with three options: Yes, No, Maybe. As the event approaches, why are so many still a Maybe? Surely they must know if they are free or not. Perhaps they don't want to commit. A wishy-washy Maybe gives them the guilt-free option to bail at the last minute, because they hadn't promised anything. Not really.
Honestly, they've probably forgotten about the invitation. That's why a half-hearted Maybe is worse than a No because no decision is made, no action taken and the one inviting is left wondering.

In Jesus' last words in Matthew's Gospel, he gives his disciples the Great Commission, the invite of all invites:
Go. Make disciples. Baptize. Teach.
And remember. Jesus is inviting them to continue His mission. To build His Church. To live His love. And to remember He is always with them. Just imagine them giving a half-hearted Maybe.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Divine love brings with it every good and banishes every evil.
