

Week 10: Forming in Synodality - January 2, 2022

Theme 10: Forming ourselves into synodality

The spirituality of walking together is called to become the educational principle of the human and Christian formation of the person, of the formation of families and communities.

1 Corinthians 3,5-11

<sup>5</sup> What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each. <sup>6</sup> I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. <sup>7</sup> So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. <sup>8</sup> The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labor of each. <sup>9</sup> For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.

<sup>10</sup> According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it. <sup>11</sup> For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ.

- ∞ What are we doing to develop mutual listening and dialogue?
- ∞ What formation do we offer to foster discernment and the exercise of authority in a synodal style?
- ∞ Are we sensitive to the impact of culture on the lifestyle of our church?

If you are interested in these questions, please send your answers by email to synode@diocesevalleyfield.org or give them to a responsible person in your parish who can forward them to me.

Thank you for your participation!
